SYLVESTEE Colten, seaman, was charged before Mr Wise at the Police Court to-day with cutting and wounding another seaman named Alexander McCulloch, on the night of the 6th inst. The men had a quarrel in Cochrane Street, and it is alleged that in the course of a fight which ensued the defendant stabbed the complainant in the side with a knife. The complainant being still in hospital suffering from a wound in the side, the case was adjourned.

THE first performance of Jensen's Congress of Cabalistic Wonders will be given at the Theatre Royal to-night. Mr Jensen, who was formerly a leading momber of Wash Norton's Company, is the best exponent of the conjuror's art that has ever visited Hengkong. One of the features of to-night's programme, as will be seem from the advertisement, is a hornpipe dance by Miss Dolly Inman, formerly of the Stanloy troups, who has joined the company.

THE Secretary of State having decided on the retention of the office of Assistant Postmaster General, the appointment has been given to Mr Gordon Stafford Northquie, who commenced his duties to-day. Mr J. M. E. Machado, from his long experience WE are glad to learn that Madamo Patey in the department, would have been the proper person to fill the appointment, as Mr Northcote has everything to learn. But the ways, of the Colonial Office, and those who act for it here, are past finding out.

CATT. J. E. Crosby, of the American ship Imperial, was summoned before Bir Wise in the Police Court to day for landing one of his crew, named James Smith, in the colony in a destitute condition, contrary to the Vagrancy Ordinance, Smith, it appeared, had been shipped from Shanghai to Llongkong, and having got an advance of $15 at the former port had nothing to receive when he was discharged here, and being without the means of subsistence he was sent to the house of detention as a vagrant.

The case was adjourned. Amongst the officers who left by the Tyne on Saturday were Commander Festing, Lieut. Mills, of the Pictor Emanuel Midshipmon Hyde, Hancock, Walter. Lisbon, February 1 -A decree is published suspending the habens corning act and authorizing the suppression throughout the country of journals projudicial to she state. The Republican papers Patria and A chates have already been suppressed. The Council of State is about to assemble to discuss the application of military law to the civilian insurgents, who will be brough here on board the transport Gudia. It has transpired that the insurgents counted upon a simultaneous rising at Coimbre, Bruga and Vizen, and were only waiting for the departure of the troops to attack the capital, but it appears that the dissensions revealed at the recent Republican conforences upset their plans. It is stated that the Eighteenth Regiment will be transfer red to Braga and that the Ninth Chassours and Tenth Infantry, which were cutred ned in the revolt, will be disbanded. An effort was made to involve the Portuquese mavy in the revolution, two sergeants of marines endesyoring to incite the orew of a Government corvette lying outside of Oporto to mutiny and seiz the skip.
